invites you to a MIGS Workshop Seminar by:

Meir Amor

Department of Sociology and Anthropology

Minorities, Expulsions, and State Persecution: A Comparative Analysis of the Expulsion of Jews from 15th Century Spain and the Expulsion of Asians from Uganda in 1972

on Friday, November 9th, at 12:00 p.m. in Room LB-608
The George Rudé Seminar Room
1400 de Maisonneuve Blvd. West

MEIR AMOR studied at Tel-Aviv University (B.A. and M.A.) and the University of Toronto (Ph.D.) where his dissertation dealt with "State Persecution and Vulnerability: A Comparative Historical Analysis of Violent Ethnocentrism." He was a research associate at the Van Leer Jerusalem Institute where he participated in a conference (Dec. 1999) whose results will be published shortly. He has taught at McMaster University and Wilfred Laurier University.

A word version of Meir Amor's paper, which will serve as the basis for the Workshop on Friday, is available for printing or downloading under "Related Files" at the bottom of the following homepage:
